

EPA Listening Session on Mercury for Tribal Organizations

May 20, 2003

Location: EPA East, Conference Room 4225

AGENDA

Purpose: To hear from tribal organization representatives about their concerns regarding mercury, and their thoughts on areas for priority focus by EPA during the next several years. EPA program representatives will also provide very brief updates on key mercury-related activities in OPPT, OW, OAR and OSW.

1:00 - 1:10 Participant Introductions (Jill Engel-Cox, facilitator)

1:10 - 1:15 Opening Remarks: Brion Cook, Acting Director, National Program Chemicals Division, Office of Pollution Prevention & Toxics, OPPTS

1:15 - 1:30 EPA Program Presentations:

- * Ellie McCann, Mercury Team Leader, National Program Chemicals Division, Office of Pollution Prevention & Toxics, OPPTS
- * Jim Pendergast, Chief, Health Protection & Modeling Branch, Standards & Health Protection Division, Office of Science & Technology, OW
- * Penny Lassiter, Acting Associate Director, Emission Standards Division, Office of Air Quality Planning & Standards, OAR
- * Janette Petersen, Acting Associate Director, Hazardous Waste Minimization & Management Division, Office of Solid Waste, OSWER

1:30 - 3:00 Tribal Organization Statements (Jill Engel-Cox, facilitator)