

Michael J. Carolan

Michael Carolan, the principal of Carolan Associates LLC, has over 20 years experience the landfill gas to energy industry during his 40 year career. Mr. Carolan was President and a Director of Zahren Alternative Power Corporation. Previously, he was Vice President of DTE Biomass. Mr. Carolan was Executive Vice President and COO of City Management Corporation, a regional solid waste company. He served as Group Vice President for GSF Energy, Inc. Mr. Carolan had various management positions at The Dow Chemical Company for 15 years.

Mr. Carolan received a BS in Civil Engineering from Newark College of Engineering, earned an MBA from Boston University and received a Professional Engineer License from the State of New Hampshire. He has been a member of SWANA's LFG Committee for over 20 years and chaired from 1986-1988. He has written and presented numerous papers and publications on the subject of LFG. He served in the Peace Corps in 1965-1967.