

Quarterly e-newsletter on news, resources & policies highlighting revitalization in the mid-Atlantic states

TOP STORIES

Tour de Philly Learn about revitalization and avoid conference room fatigue by signing up for outdoor sessions on two wheels

Revitalization goes area-wide in a big way

EPA's newest brownfields grant takes into account how taking a big picture approach to revitalization is the way of the future

McKees (truly) Rocks

The western PA town of McKees Rocks redevelops land for the first time in a century at this historic rail yard property

Roanoke takes brownfields to task Read about how one Virginia community is taking a measured approach to reducing brownfields blight... one task at a time

Weeding their way into history at Awbury Feds and families came together one afternoon to beautify one of the nation's first green treasures

RESOURCES

Petroleum Brownfields: EPA's new report on best practices, tools & tips for assessing, cleaning, and reusing petroleum sites

Urban Agriculture: New interim guidelines for safe gardening

TALK to US

To subscribe to The Update e-newsletter, please send an email to the editor at R3_LR_Update@epa.gov with the word "Subscribe" in your subject line. We also want your feedback! Email your story ideas and comments to the editor.

EVENTS

EPA Region 3 Brownfields Applicant Training Session

OCT. 25, 2011*

Request for Proposals For EPA Brownfields Assessment, Revolving Loan Fund, & Cleanup Grants

Due NOV. 28, 2011

EPA Multipurpose Grants Application Period

Opens DEC. 2011

EPA Environmental Workforce Job Training Grants Application Period

Opens NOV./DEC. 2011

EPA Area-Wide Planning Grants Application Period

Opens FEB. 2012

Details to follow in a separate email announcement*

 Stay tuned— exact dates to be posted as we receive them*