

Quarterly e-newsletter on news, resources & policies highlighting revitalization in the mid-Atlantic states

THE BF2011 ISSUE

The Countdown has begun...

Welcome to this special issue of The Update, which provides a snapshot of the vast offerings the National Brownfields Conference has to offer this April.

Take the Awbury Challenge Join fellow conference-goers in their quest to beautify an historic greenspace in the heart of urban Philadelphia.

Innovation clusters make a world of difference Learn how collaborations between governments and universities = sustainability for all.

Insider tips on the 112th Congress Learn how our new Congress will deal with cleanup and revitalization issues that impact us all.

Can you see it? Community combats modern mess Hear how one tenacious Boston community did a complete 180 to make change.

BF2011 RESOURCES

Rising from the ashes: Bankruptcy & new uses Here's your chance to learn how bankruptcy and foreclosures are redevelopment hurdles that can be overcome.

Have you signed up for the hottest ticket in town? If not, there's still time to reserve your space, free of charge. GO TO:
