

Commodore Waste Rock

Estimated volume of waste > 500,000 cu yd

Nelson Tunnel

Historic Town of Creede is 1 mile downstream from the site and near the Rio Grande

Driving the Bachelor Loop to view the rich mining history is a popular summer activity for vacationers.

Fishing is a popular activity for tourists and residents alike.

An amethyst vein exists and rock hunting is popular in the lower part of the drainage above Creede.

Aftermath of flood downstream from Nelson Tunnel above Creede

Aftermath of flood downstream of Nelson Tunnel

Nelson Tunnel
pictured below as it flows into West
Willow Creek

