DECONSTRUCTION + REEMPLOYMENT

DECONSTRUCTION

REEMPLOYMENT

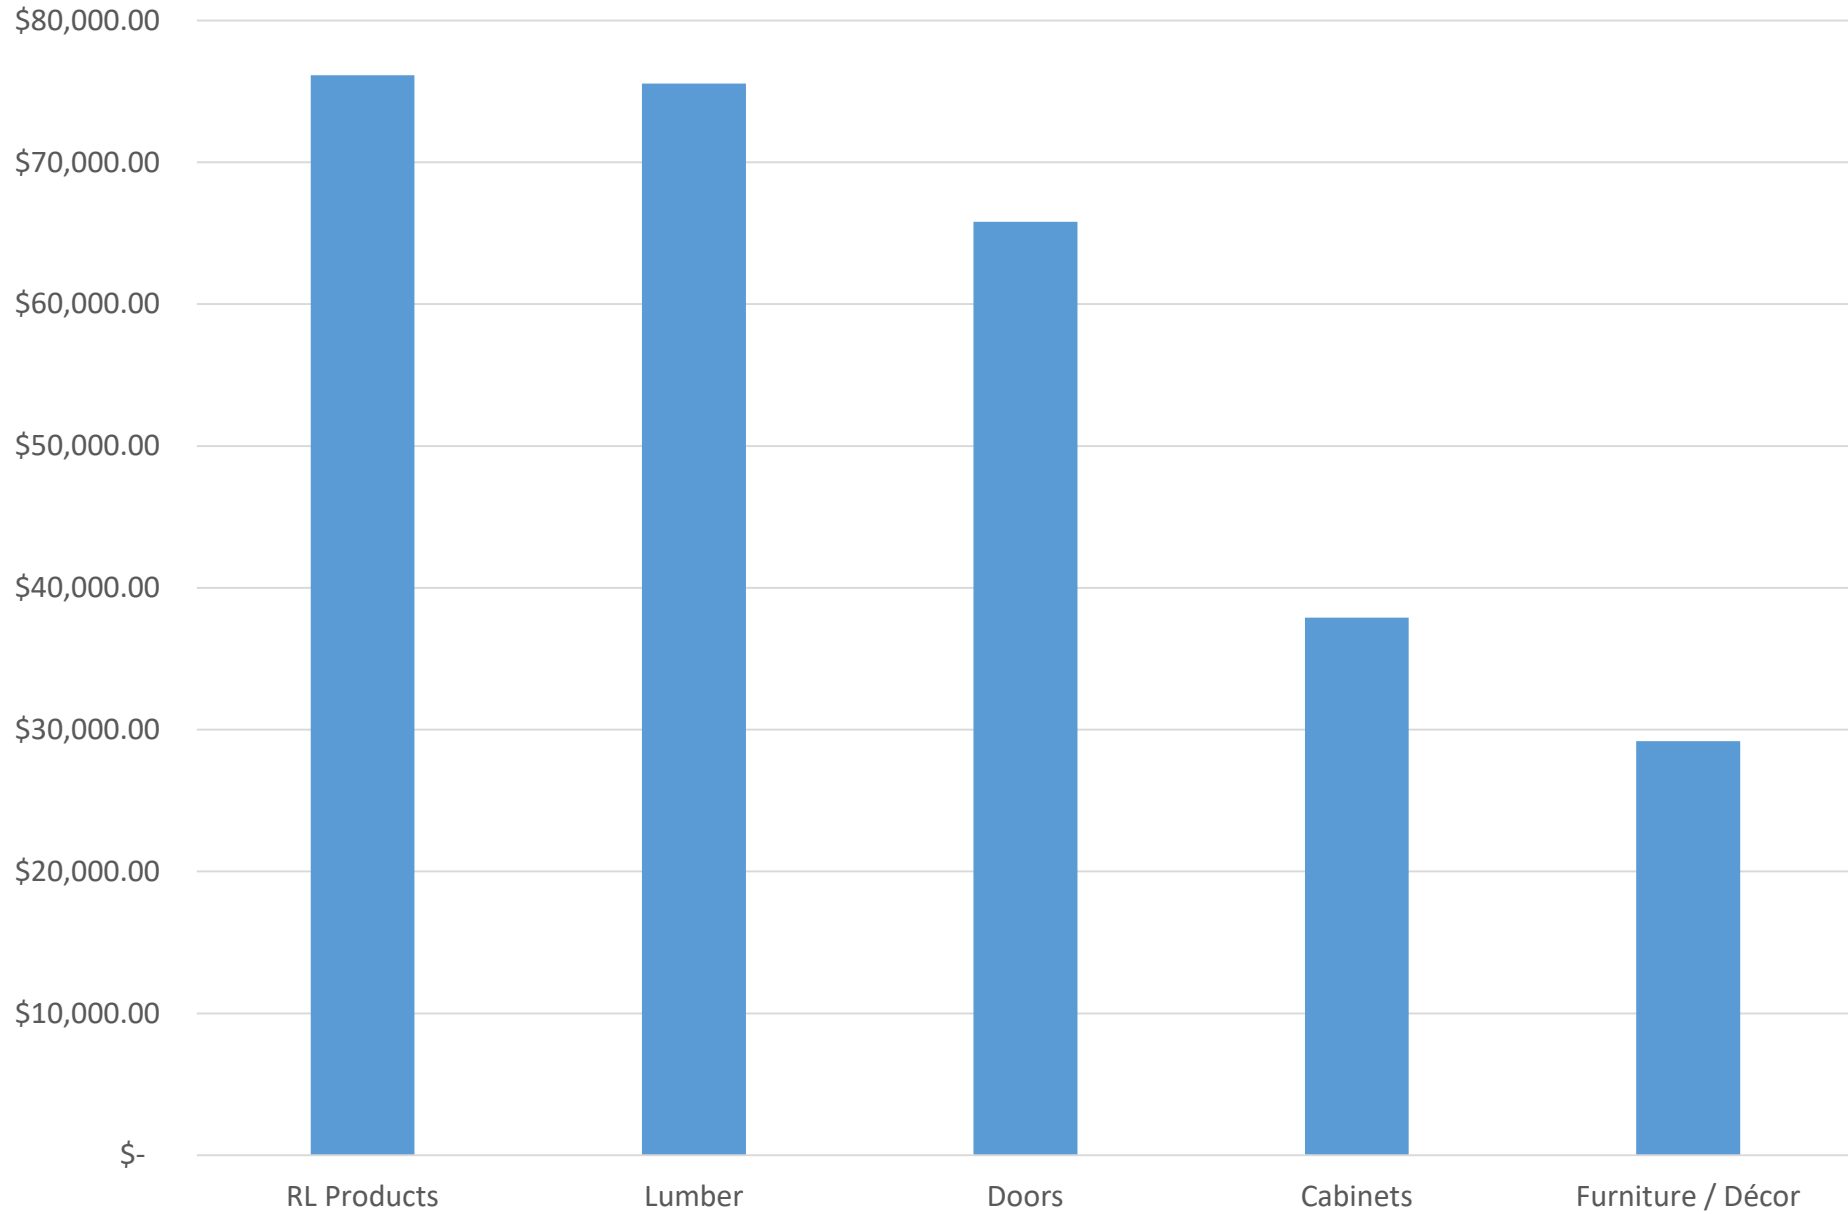

A photograph showing a truck bed filled with large, light-colored wooden beams. The beams are stacked and appear to be made of reclaimed wood, with some showing signs of wear and discoloration. In the background, there is a brick building and a white bus. The text "RECLAIMED RESALE" is overlaid in the center of the image.
