

Attachment 5 – What is AZURITE?

Arizona DEQ has a central application where it manages a majority of the agency compliance data.

For example, when the agency receives DMR data on paper, staff enters the data into the Wastewater Compliance Tracking (WCT) module. A nightly process will review that data and flag any results outside the permit limits as violations for staff to review.

