

Buildings as Shielding

The numbers in the diagram represent a radiation dose reduction factor. For example, the number 50 indicates that a person in that area would receive 1/50th of the dose of a person standing outside of the building. Higher numbers indicate more protection from ionizing radiation.

Source: <https://www.ready.gov/>