

How Do We Get To A Better Big River?

State and federal agencies work together with landowners and the public.

Remove built up contaminated sediment from behind dams and other structures.

Restore trees and vegetation along the riverbank.

Address contaminated yard soil along the river floodplain.

Stabilize eroding riverbanks with engineered designs using trees, shrubs, and rocks.

Restore native mussels, crayfish, and fish.

