

Rule 12. Regulation of Odors in the Ambient Air.

Rule 12.1. An odor will be deemed "objectionable" when fifteen percent (15%) or more of the people exposed to it believe it to be objectionable in usual places of occupancy based on a sample size of at least twenty (20) people or if fewer than twenty (20) people are exposed, when a minimum of three (3) people exposed believe it to be objectionable.

Rule 12.2. No person shall cause, suffer, allow or permit emission such as to cause an "objectionable" odor on or adjacent to residential, recreational, institutional, retail sales, hotel or educational premises.

Rule 12.3. No person shall cause, suffer, allow or permit emission such as to cause an "objectionable" odor on or adjacent to premises other than those listed in Rule 12.2 unless the odor is not detectable where air containing such odorous matter is diluted with four (4) equal volumes of odor-free air.
