

Optional SWIFR Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia

Application Submission Checklist

Funding Opportunity Number (FON): EPA-I-OLEM-ORCR-24-06

Disclaimer: This optional checklist is intended to provide a streamlined representation of the Solid Waste Infrastructure for Recycling (SWIFR) Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) to assist applicants with ensuring their application addresses the threshold and evaluation criteria. This checklist does not supersede the requirements in NOFO. Applicants should ensure they address all criteria outlined in the NOFO.

Section numbers referenced throughout this checklist refer to the NOFO. This checklist is for your reference only – you do not need to submit it with your application. Check each box before you submit your application.

Did you register on SAM.gov and Grants.gov?
Ensure you have your login information for SAM.gov and Grants.gov or Register in SAM.gov and Grants.gov – See Section IV.B. Submission Instructions of the NOFO.
1. Does your organization have an active SAM.gov registration? See Section IV.B.1: SAM.gov (System for Award Management) Registration Instructions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Once your SAM.gov account is active, has your organization registered with Grants.gov? See Section IV.B.2: Grants.gov Registration Information. Note: This process can take a month or more for new registrants, so be sure to register early.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Did you address all of the Threshold Eligibility Criteria?
Threshold Eligibility Criteria – See Section III.C: Threshold Eligibility Criteria in the SWIFR Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia Notice of Funding Opportunity
1. Does your application meet threshold eligibility criterion 1 by addressing at least one of the mandatory objectives described in Section I.E: Scope of Work?	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Does your application meet threshold eligibility criterion 2 by indicating that you are an eligible entity as described in Section III.A: Eligible Applicants?	<input type="checkbox"/>

3. Does your application meet threshold eligibility criterion 3 by requesting no less than $100,000 and no more than $1,500,000 as described in Section III.C: Threshold Eligibility Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Does your application meet threshold eligibility criterion 4 by including a statement that the proposed project(s) do not duplicate other Federally funded grants received, as described in Section III.C: Threshold Eligibility Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Does your application meet threshold eligibility criterion 5 by substantially complying with the application submissions instructions and requirements, as described in Section IV: Application and Submission Information ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Will your application be submitted through Grants.gov or an approved exception? See Section IV: Application and Submission Information.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. Is your application free of any ineligible tasks or activities? See Section I.E: Scope of Work and Section III.E: Ineligible Costs or Activities.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. Will your application be ready to submit by the deadline, March 14, 2025 ?	<input type="checkbox"/>

Does your Project Narrative Attachment Form address all elements of the five (5) Evaluation Criteria and related sub-criteria?

You may use the Optional Project Narrative Attachment Resource for the SWIFR Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia (which includes the Summary Information Cover Letter and the Narrative Proposal), available on EPA’s Solid Waste Infrastructure for Recycling Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia webpage. Use of this resource is optional. Applicants that do not use this resource will not be penalized.

Summary Information Cover Letter (maximum of 1 page) – See Section IV.E: Content of Application Submission

1. Does your Summary Information Cover Letter include all the elements in Section IV.E: Content of Application Submission ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
--	--------------------------

Narrative Proposal Evaluation Criteria (maximum of 10 pages) – See Section IV.E: Content of Application Submission and Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria

1. Project Summary and Approach

Does your Narrative Proposal address evaluation criterion 1 as described in Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
---	--------------------------

2. Impactful Approaches and Solutions
Does your Narrative Proposal address evaluation criterion 2 as described in Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Measuring Environmental Results: Outputs and Outcomes
Does your Narrative Proposal address evaluation criterion 3 as described in Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
This includes making sure that the application discusses all the outputs and outcomes listed in Section I.H: Measuring and Reporting Environmental Results .
Note: All outputs and outcomes listed in Section I.H must be discussed to receive full points for this criterion (even if the anticipated result is “0” or “Not Applicable”).
4. Programmatic Capability and Past Performance
Does your Narrative Proposal address evaluation criterion 4 as described in Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria ?	<input type="checkbox"/>
This includes submitting a list of federally and/or non-federally funded assistance agreements that your organization performed within the last three years (no more than 5 agreements, and preferably EPA agreements). See Section IV.E.b.iv: Programmatic Capability and Past Performance .
5. Budget and Expenditure of Awarded Grant Funds
You may use the Optional SWIFR for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia Budget Table and Description Spreadsheet Resource, available on EPA’s Solid Waste Infrastructure for Recycling Grants for Tribes and Intertribal Consortia webpage. Use of this spreadsheet is optional. Applicants that do not use this resource will not be penalized.
Does your Narrative Proposal address evaluation criterion 5 as described in Section V.A: Evaluation Criteria ? Budget Table and Description:	<input type="checkbox"/>
See Section IV.E.b.v: Budget and Expenditure of Awarded Grant Funds of the NOFO and EPA’s Interim Budget Development Guidance for Applicants and Recipients of EPA Financial Assistance for more details on itemizing and categorizing costs.
Does your Narrative Proposal or Budget Table and Description also convey the approach, procedures, and controls for ensuring the awarded grant funds will be expended in a timely and efficient manner?	<input type="checkbox"/>

Does your Project Narrative Attachment Form conform to the page limits?
Did you follow the content specifications and format requirements for your Project Narrative Attachment Form? See Section IV.E: Content of Application Submission. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Summary Information Cover Letter: maximum 1 page ○ Narrative Proposal: maximum 10 pages ○ Budget Table and Description: spreadsheet (no page limit), or up to 4 typed pages Any pages in excess of the page limits will not be reviewed.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Did you complete the five (5) mandatory application forms?
Application Forms (Mandatory) – See Section IV.D: Application Materials
1. Have you completed the Standard Form 424 – Application for Federal Assistance in Grants.gov?	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Have you completed the Standard Form 424A – Budget Information for Non-Construction Programs in Grants.gov? Note: This is different than the Budget Table and Description, which is also required as a part of the Project Narrative Attachment.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Have you completed the EPA Key Contacts Form 5700-54 in Grants.gov?	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Have you completed the EPA Form 4700-4 – Pre-award Compliance Review Report in Grants.gov?	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Have you completed the Project Narrative Attachment Form as described in Section IV.E. Content of Application Submission? This form Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Summary Information Cover Letter ● Narrative Proposal ● Budget Table and Description 	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Double check: Does your application include both the SF-424A form and the Budget Table and Description? (These are two separate documents.)	<input type="checkbox"/>

Did you include optional documentation?

Documentation (Optional) – See Section IV.E: Content of Application Submission, Other Attachments (Optional)

Note: Submitting additional application materials that are not pertinent to the application can slow down the review process and potentially delay awards.

1. Other Attachments:

- Milestones and Timeline (optional)
- Documentation demonstrating that the applicant is an eligible Intertribal Consortium (if applicable)
- Negotiated indirect cost rate agreement (if applicable)
- A copy of a financial record displaying the amount of previous SWIFR cooperative agreement funds drawn down (if applicable)

These documents are not included in the page limits listed above, and do not have page limits.

2. Did you review the list of documents that will not be considered as part of the application review process, and remove any listed documents from your application?

See subsection Optional Documents in Section IV.D: Application Materials in the NOFO.

Are you ready to submit your application? If so, follow the instructions in Section IV.B: Submission Instructions.

For technical assistance with submitting your application, prior to the deadline, contact Grants.gov at 1-800-518-4726 or support@grants.gov.

For questions concerning the NOFO requirements, contact EPA at SWIFRTribal@epa.gov